

I am strongly opposed to raising the caps on multiple ownership of broadcast facilities. This action would be a serious blow to the free flow of public discourse. If anything, the limits to multiple ownership should be reduced. There is no question but that the public interest is not served when the public is not fully informed. With a reduction in competition only the viewpoint of monopoly ownership is expressed.
sincerely,

Willard R. Terry